What is a workplace violence protective order?

Under California law (Code Civ. Proc., § 527.8), courts can make orders to protect an employee from suffering unlawful violence or credible threats of violence at the workplace.

The court can order a person not to:

- Harass or threaten the employee;
- Contact or go near the employee; and
- Have a gun.

These orders will be enforced by law enforcement agencies.

Who can get a workplace violence protective order?

Employers can obtain court orders prohibiting unlawful violence or credible threats of violence against their employees. To get an order under this law, the petitioner must be an employer. An employer is defined as:

- Every person engaged in any business or enterprise in this state that has one or more persons in service under any appointment, contract of hire, or apprenticeship, express or implied, oral or written, irrespective of whether such person is the owner of the business or is operating on a concessionaire or other basis. (Lab. Code, § 350(a).)
- A federal, state, or local public agency; a city, county, district, or public corporation. (Code Civ. Proc., § 527.8(b)(3).)

Before completing the forms needed to obtain court orders under this statute, make certain you meet the definition of “employer” as defined above.

The statute differs from other California laws that allow victims of unlawful violence or credible threats of violence to ask the court for these orders themselves. If anyone other than the employer wishes to apply to the court for an order prohibiting harassment, see Can a Civil Harassment Restraining Order Help Me (Form CH-100-INFO)?.

Who can an employer protect under this law?

Under this statute, an employer can obtain a court order that lasts up to three years on behalf of an employee. The order can also protect certain family or household members of the employee and other employees at the employee’s workplace or at other workplaces of the employer.

California law defines “employees” as:

- Every person, including aliens and minors, rendering actual service in any business for an employer, whether gratuitously or for wages or pay; whether the wages or pay are measured by the standard of time, piece, task, commission, or other method of calculation; and whether the service is rendered on a commission, concessionaire, or other basis. (Lab. Code, § 350(b).)
- Members of boards of directors and public officers.
- Volunteers or independent contractors who perform services for the employer at the employer’s work site.

The “respondent” is the person against whom the employer is requesting the protective order.

An employer may seek protection under this law if:

1. An employee has suffered unlawful violence or a credible threat of violence from any individual;
2. The unlawful violence was carried out in the workplace, or the threat of violence can reasonably be construed to be carried out in the workplace;
3. The respondent’s conduct is not allowable as part of a legitimate labor dispute as permitted by Code of Civil Procedure section 527.3; and
4. The respondent is not engaged in constitutionally protected activity.

What forms must be used to get the order?

1. Petition for Orders Workplace Violence Restraining Orders (Petition) (Form WV-100). This form tells the judge the facts of the petitioner’s case and what orders the petitioner and employee want the court to make.
2. Confidential CLETS Information (Form CLETS-001). This form will provide law enforcement agencies with the information needed to enforce any orders that are granted.
3. Notice of Court Hearing (Form WV-109). This form tells the parties when the hearing on the petition will be held.

4. Temporary Restraining Order (TRO) (Form WV-110). A TRO can be issued to provide protection to the employee until the hearing is held. It can be issued by the judge either with or without notice to the respondent.

5. Workplace Violence Restraining Order After Hearing (Order) (Form WV-130). This is the form signed by the court following the hearing. The order can last for up to three years depending on what the judge rules.

These forms are all mandatory—that is, they must be used in the workplace violence prevention proceeding.

6. Proof of Personal Service (Form WV-200). This form is used to show that the other party has been served with the petition and other forms as required by law.

Where can I get these forms?

You can get the forms from legal publishers or on the Internet at www.courts.ca.gov. You also may be able to find them at your local courthouse or county law library.

Do I need a lawyer?

The employer may be represented by a lawyer, but one is not required by law unless the employer is a corporation. Because the employer’s lawyer will generally be representing the interests of the employee, the employee usually does not need his or her own lawyer. Whether or not the employer has a lawyer, the respondent may have one.

What steps are needed to get the court orders?

1. Fill in the Petition (Form WV-100) completely and fill in items 1–3 of the Notice of Court Hearing (Form WV-109). If you are seeking a TRO, also fill out Form WV-110.
2. If you are seeking orders based on information from your employee and others and not based on what you have personally observed, you must have each of those persons complete a declaration to attach to the Petition (Form WV-100). You may use Form MC-031, Attached Declaration.

3. Fill in Confidential CLETS Information (Form CLETS-001) with as much information as you know. If the judge grants the order, the information on this form will be entered into a statewide protective-order database that will be available to law enforcement agencies if the order needs to be enforced.

4. If you are applying for a TRO, fill out Form WV-110 completely. The petition and the declarations must give the details of the recent acts of violence or credible threats of violence and the problems they have caused your employee.

To obtain a TRO, you must notify the respondent of the request for the temporary order unless both of the following requirements are satisfied:

- a. It appears from facts shown on the petition that great or irreparable injury will result before the matter can be heard on notice; and
- b. You or your attorney certifies one of the following to the court under oath:
  - (1) That within a reasonable time before presenting the petition to the court to ask for a TRO, you informed the respondent or the respondent’s attorney when and where the request for a TRO would be made;
  - (2) That you in good faith attempted but were unable to inform the respondent and the respondent’s attorney, specifying the efforts made to contact them; or
  - (3) That for reasons specified, you should not be required to inform the respondent or the respondent’s attorney.

5. Take your original completed forms and copies to the clerk’s office at the court. You will need at least three copies: one for you, one for the employee, and one to serve on the respondent. If there are other persons to be protected by the order, you will need additional copies of the TRO. A protected person will need a copy of the TRO if it is necessary to call the police. The clerk will file the originals, assign a case number, and return the copies “file-stamped” to you. The clerk will write your hearing date on the Notice of Court Hearing (Form WV-109).

6. If you are seeking a TRO (Form WV-110), the clerk will tell you where and how to present your proposed order to a judge for consideration and signature. The court will decide within 24 hours whether or not to make the order. Sometimes the court decides right away. Ask the clerk if you should wait or come back later. If your request for a TRO is granted while you are still at the court, take the signed original back to the clerk to be filed.
7. If a TRO has been issued, ask the clerk whether you or your lawyer will need to deliver a file-stamped copy of the TRO to each law enforcement agency (police, marshal, or sheriff's office) that might be called on to enforce the order. If so, do so immediately.
If the court issues a TRO, it will last until the hearing date.
8. If the employee does not speak English, when you file your papers, ask the clerk if a court interpreter will be available for the hearing. You may have to pay a fee for the interpreter. If an interpreter will not be provided, you should ask someone who is not listed as a person to be protected on your Petition and who is over age 18 to interpret.
9. Have the respondent personally served with copies of the Petition (Form WV-100), the Notice of Court Hearing (Form WV-109), the TRO (Form WV-110) (if issued), a blank Response (Form WV-120), and a blank Proof of Service of Response by Mail (Form WV-250). You cannot serve the respondent yourself. Service may be made by a licensed process server, the sheriff's department, or any person 18 years of age or older, other than you, the employee, or anyone to be protected by the order. For help with service, ask the court clerk for Form WV-200-INFO, What Is "Proof of Personal Service"?.

Service is essential. It tells the respondent about the order and the hearing. Without it, there cannot be a court hearing, and your temporary orders will no longer be good unless they are extended by the court. The respondent should be personally served immediately after the orders are signed by the judge, unless the court specifies a different time for service.

10. After the respondent has been personally served, the person who served the respondent must complete and sign the original Proof of Personal Service (Form WV-200). Take the signed original and copies back to the court clerk. The clerk will file the original and return "file-stamped" copies to you. Ask the clerk whether you should take a file-stamped copy to each law enforcement agency that might be called on to enforce the order. If so, do so immediately.

11. Go to court on the date shown at item 4 on the Notice of Court Hearing (Form WV-109). You do not need to bring any witnesses, but it helps to have more proof of the violence or threats than just one person's word.

You can bring to the hearing:

- Witnesses
- Written statements from witnesses made under oath
- Photos
- Medical or police reports
- Damaged property
- Threatening letters, e-mails, or telephone messages

The court may or may not let witnesses speak at the hearing. So, if possible, you should bring their written statements under oath to the hearing. (You can use Form MC-030, Declaration.)

The respondent has the right to attend the hearing, but he or she does not have the right to speak to the employee or to any other person seeking protection. If anyone is afraid, tell the court officer.

12. If the judge signs the Order (Form WV-130), ask the clerk to provide you with a file-stamped copy for each person to be protected. Ask the clerk whether you or your attorney will need to deliver a file-stamped copy of the Order to each law enforcement agency that might be called on to enforce the order. If so, do so immediately.
13. If the respondent attended the hearing and heard the terms of the Order from the court, no additional proof of service is necessary. If the respondent did not attend the hearing, but the Order issued is the same as the TRO (except for the termination date), the Order may be served on the respondent by mail. File Form WV-260, Proof of Service of Order After Hearing by Mail. If the respondent did not attend the hearing and the Order differs from the TRO, arrange to have him or her personally served with a copy of the Order. File the completed Proof of Personal Service (Form WV-200) with the court. Give a file-stamped copy of the Order and proof of service to your employee and to each other protected person. Keep at least one copy for yourself.
14. Once the order is issued, only the judge can change or cancel it. You or the respondent would have to file a request with the court to cancel the order.

15. If the respondent does not obey the order, call the police. The respondent can be arrested and charged with a crime.

Request for Accommodations

Assistive listening systems, computer-assisted real-time captioning, or sign language interpreter services are available if you ask at least five court days before the hearing. Contact the clerk's office or go to www.courts.ca.gov/forms for Request for Accommodations by Persons with Disabilities and Response (Form MC-410). (Civ. Code, § 54.8.)

Warnings and Notices to the Restrained Person in ②

You Cannot Have Guns or Firearms

You cannot own, have, possess, buy or try to buy, receive or try to receive, or otherwise get guns, other firearms, or ammunition while this Order is in effect. If you do, you can go to jail and pay a $1,000 fine. You must sell to or store with a licensed gun dealer or turn in to a law enforcement agency any guns or other firearms that you have or control as stated in item ⑧ above. The court will require you to prove that you did so.

Notice Regarding Nonappearance at Hearing and Service of Order

If you have been personally served with this Temporary Restraining Order and form WV-109, Notice of Court Hearing, but you do not appear at the hearing either in person or by a lawyer, and a restraining order that is the same as this Temporary Restraining Order except for the expiration date is issued at the hearing, a copy of the order will be served on you by mail at the address in item ③.

If this address is not correct or you wish to verify that the Temporary Restraining Order was converted into a restraining order at the hearing without substantive change, or to find out the duration of the order, contact the clerk of the court.

After You Have Been Served With a Restraining Order

- Obey all the orders. Any intentional violation of this Order is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine or by imprisonment in a county jail, or by both fine and imprisonment. (Pen. Code, § 273.6.)
- Read form WV-120-INFO, How Can I Respond to a Petition for Orders to Stop Workplace Violence?, to learn how to respond to this Order.
- If you want to respond, fill out form WV-120, Response to Petition for Workplace Violence Restraining Orders, and file it with the court clerk. You do not have to pay any fee to file your response if the petition claims that you threatened violence against or stalked the employee, or placed the employee in reasonable fear of violence.
- You must have form WV-120 served on the petitioner or the petitioner's attorney by mail. You cannot do this yourself. The person who does the service should complete and sign form WV-250, Proof of Service of Response by Mail. File the completed proof of service with the court clerk before the hearing date or bring it with you to the hearing.
- In addition to the response, you may file and have declarations served, signed by you and other persons who have personal knowledge of the facts. You may use form MC-030, Declaration, for this purpose. It is available from the clerk's office at the court shown on page 1 of this form or at www.courts.ca.gov/forms. If you do not know how to prepare a declaration, you should see a lawyer.
- Whether or not you file a response, you should attend the hearing. If you have any witnesses, they must also go to the hearing.
- At the hearing, the judge can make restraining orders against you that last for up to three years. Tell the judge why you disagree with the orders requested.

This is a Court Order.

Instructions for Law Enforcement

Enforcing the Restraining Order

This order is enforceable by any law enforcement agency that has received the order, is shown a copy of the order, or has verified its existence on the California Restraining and Protective Orders System (CARPOS). Agencies are encouraged to enter violation messages into CARPOS. If the law enforcement agency has not received proof of service on the restrained person, the agency must advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then must enforce it. Violations of this order are subject to criminal penalties.

Start Date and End Date of Orders

This order starts on the date next to the judge’s signature on page 4. The order ends on the expiration date in item 5 on page 1.

If the Protected Person Contacts the Restrained Person

Even if the protected person invites or consents to contact with the restrained person, this order remains in effect and must be enforced. The protected person cannot be arrested for inviting or consenting to contact with the restrained person. The order can be changed only by another court order. (Pen. Code, § 13710(b).)

Conflicting Orders—Priorities for Enforcement

If more than one restraining order has been issued, the orders must be enforced according to the following priorities: (See Pen. Code, § 136.2, Fam. Code, §§ 6383(h)(2), 6405(b).)

1. EPO: If one of the orders is an Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-001) and is more restrictive than other restraining or protective orders, it has precedence in enforcement over all other orders.
2. No Contact Order: If there is no EPO, a no-contact order that is included in a restraining or protective order has precedence over any other restraining or protective order.
3. Criminal Order: If none of the orders includes a no contact order, a domestic violence protective order issued in a criminal case takes precedence in enforcement over any conflicting civil court order. Any nonconflicting terms of the civil restraining order remain in effect and enforceable.
4. Family, Juvenile, or Civil Order: If more than one family, juvenile, or other civil restraining or protective order has been issued, the one that was issued last must be enforced.

(Clerk will fill out this part.)

This is not a Court Order—Do not place in court file.

What is a workplace violence restraining order?

It is a court order that prohibits you from doing certain things and going certain places.

What does the order do?

The court can order you to:

- Not contact the employee who is protected by the order
- Stay away from the employee and the employee’s home, workplace and other places
- Not have any guns as long as the order is in effect

Who can ask for a workplace violence restraining order?

An employer can ask for an order on behalf of an employee who has suffered violence or a credible threat of violence at the workplace.

I've been served with a petition for private workplace violence restraining orders.

What do I do now?

Read the papers served on you very carefully. The Notice of Court Hearing tells you when to appear in court. There may also be a Temporary Restraining Order forbidding you from doing certain things. You must obey the order until the hearing.

What if I don't obey the order?

The police can arrest you. You can go to jail and pay a fine.

What if I don't agree with what the order says?

You still must obey the order until the hearing. If you disagree with the orders the person is asking for, fill out Form WV-120, Response to Petition for Workplace Violence Restraining Orders, before your hearing date and file it with the court. If you need to include attachments, you can use Form MC-025. You can get the forms from legal publishers or on the Internet at www.courts.ca.gov. You also may be able to find them at your local courthouse or county law library.

Do I have to serve the other person with a copy of my response?

Yes. Have someone age 18 or older—not you—mail a copy of completed Form WV-120 to the person named in item ① of the petition Form WV-110 (or that person’s lawyer). (This is called “service by mail.”)

The person who serves the form by mail for you must fill out Form WV-250, Proof of Service of Response by Mail. Have the person who did the mailing sign the original. Take the completed form back to the court clerk or bring it with you to the hearing.

Should I go to the court hearing?

Yes. You should go to court on the date listed on Form WV-109, Notice of Court Hearing. If you do not go to the hearing, the judge can make orders against you without hearing from you.

What is “Service”?

Service is the act of giving legal papers to the other party. There are many kinds of service—in person, by mail, and others. This form is about personal or “in-person” service. The Petition for Orders to Stop Workplace Violence (Form WV-100), the Notice of Court Hearing (Form WV-109), and the Temporary Restraining Order (Form WV-110) must be served in person. That means that someone must personally “serve” (give) a copy of the forms to the person to be restrained. These forms cannot be served by mail.

Service lets the other person know:

- What orders you are asking for
- The hearing date
- How to respond

Why do I have to get the orders served?

- The police cannot arrest anyone for violating an order unless that person knows about the order.
- The judge cannot make the orders permanent unless the restrained person was served.

Don't serve it by mail!

Who can serve?

Ask someone you know, a process server, or a law enforcement agency to personally serve (give) a copy of the forms to the person to be restrained. You cannot send the forms to that person by mail.

The server must:

- Be 18 years of age or older
- Not be you or anyone whom you are asking to be protected by the orders

The sheriff or marshal may be authorized to serve the court's orders for free if the orders are based on claims of stalking, unlawful violence, or a credible threat of violence.

A registered process server is a business you pay to deliver court forms. Look for “Process Serving” in the Yellow Pages or on the Internet.

(If a law enforcement agency or the process server uses a different proof-of-service form, make sure it lists the forms served.)

How to serve

Ask the server to:

- Walk up to the person to be served.
- Make sure it is the right person. Ask the person's name.
- Give the person copies of all papers checked on Form WV-200, Proof of Personal Service.
- Fill out and sign the Proof of Personal Service.
- Give the signed Proof of Personal Service to you.

What if the person won't take the papers or tears them up?

- If the person will not take the papers, just leave them near him or her.
- It does not matter if the person tears them up. Service is still complete.

When do the orders have to be served?

It depends. To know the exact date, you have to look at two things on Form WV-109, Notice of Court Hearing.

First, look at the hearing date on page 1 of Form WV-109.

4 Notice of Hearing

Hearing Date → Date: _____
Dept.: _____

Next, look at the number of days in item ⑥ on page 2 of Form WV-109.

⑥ Service of Documents By the Person in ①

At least  five  _____ days before the hearing.

Look at a calendar. Subtract the number of days in ⑥ from the hearing date. That is the final date to have the orders served. It is always OK to serve earlier than that date.

If nothing is checked or written in ⑥, you must serve the orders at least five days before the hearing.

Who signs the Proof of Personal Service?

Only the person who serves the forms can sign Form WV-200, Proof of Personal Service. You do not sign it; the restrained person does not need to sign it.

What do I do with the completed Proof of Personal Service?

If someone other than the sheriff serves the papers, you should:

- Make several copies.
- File the original with the court before your hearing.
- Ask the clerk to enter it into the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS), a special computer system that lets police all over the state find out about the orders protecting you.
- If the clerk tells you that the court cannot enter it into the computer, take a copy of the Temporary Restraining Order (Form WV-110) and Proof of Personal Service (Form WV-200) to your local police. They will put the information into the state computer system. That way, police all over the state will know that your restraining order has been served.
- Bring a copy of the completed Proof of Personal Service to your hearing.
- Always keep an extra copy of the restraining orders with you for your safety.

If the sheriff serves the papers, he or she will send the proof of service to the court and CLETS for you.

What happens if I can't get the orders served before the hearing date?

Before your hearing, fill out and file Form WV-115, Request to Continue Court Hearing and to Reissue Temporary Restraining Order. This form asks the court for a new hearing date and makes your orders last until then. Ask the clerk for the form. After the court has reissued the orders, attach a copy of Form WV-116, Notice of New Hearing Date and Order on Reissuance, to a copy of your original orders. Ask the clerk to enter Form WV-116 into CLETS or the clerk may ask you or your attorney to deliver a copy to the police. That way, the police will know your orders are still in effect.

Clerk stamps date here when form is filed.

This Order is enforceable by any law enforcement agency that has received the Order, is shown a copy of the Order, or has verified its existence on the California Restraining and Protective Order System (CARPOS). Agencies are encouraged to enter violation messages into CARPOS. Conflicting Orders—Priorities for Enforcement

If more than one restraining order has been issued, the orders must be enforced according to the following priorities: (See Pen. Code, § 136.2, Fam. Code, §§ 6383(h)(2), 6405(b).)

1. EPO: If one of the orders is an Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-001) and is more restrictive than other restraining or protective orders, it has precedence in enforcement over all other orders.
2. No Contact Order: If there is no EPO, a no-contact order that is included in a restraining or protective order has precedence over any other restraining or protective order.
3. Criminal Order: If none of the orders includes a no contact order, a domestic violence protective order issued in a criminal case takes precedence in enforcement over any conflicting civil court order. Any nonconflicting terms of the civil restraining order remain in effect and enforceable.
4. Family, Juvenile, or Civil Order: If more than one family, juvenile, or other civil restraining or protective order has been issued, the one that was issued last must be enforced.

WV-115-INFO How to Ask for a New Hearing Date

1 You may need to ask for a new court date if:

- You are the petitioner and are unable to have Notice of Court Hearing (form WV-109) and other papers served in time before your court date.
- You are the respondent and making your first request to reschedule your court date.
- You have a good reason for needing a new court date. (The court may grant a request to reschedule your court date on a showing of good cause.)

2 What does form WV-115 do?

Use Request to Continue Hearing (form WV-115) to ask the court to reschedule your court date. If your court date is rescheduled and a Temporary Restraining Order (TRO; form WV-110) was granted, the TRO will be extended until the end of your new court date unless the court decides to modify or terminate it. “Extend” means to keep any temporary orders in effect until the new court date.

3 Follow these steps:

- Fill out all of form WV-115.
- Fill out items 1 through 2 on Order on Request to Continue Hearing (form WV-116).
- The judge will need to review your papers. In some courts, you must give your papers to the clerk. Ask the court clerk for information on how you ask the judge to review your papers.
- After you turn in your forms as required by your local court, check with the clerk’s office to see if the judge approved (granted) your request to reschedule your court date.
- If the judge signed form WV-116, the court will give you a new court date. If the judge did NOT sign the form, you should go to court at the date, time, and location on form WV-109.
- Next, file both forms WV-115 and WV-116 with the clerk. The clerk will make up to three file-stamped copies for you. Keep at least one copy to bring to your court date.
- The other party must be served a copy of the court papers as described in item 6 on form WV-116.
- Ask the person who serves the papers to complete a proof of service form and give it to you. If service was in person, use Proof of Personal Service (form WV-200). If service was by mail, use Proof of Service—Civil (form POS-040). Make two copies of the completed forms.
- File the completed and signed proof of service form with the clerk’s office before your court date.
- If the court reschedules your court date and extends the TRO to the end of your new court date, the clerk will send the TRO to law enforcement. It will be entered into a statewide computer system that lets police know about the order so that it can be enforced.

4 Go to your court date

- Take at least two copies of your documents and filed forms to your court date. Include a filed proof of service form. “Documents” may include exhibits, declarations, and financial statements, and the court may enter them into evidence at its discretion.
- If you are the petitioner and you do not go to your court date, the TRO will expire at the end of your court date.
- If you are the respondent and you do not go to your court date, the court can still make orders against you that can last for up to three years.

5 Need help?

Ask the court clerk about free or low-cost legal help that may be available in your county.
