A Certificate of Rehabilitation is a court order declaring that a person convicted of a felony is now rehabilitated. If a petition for Certificate of Rehabilitation is granted, it is forwarded to the Governor by the court and constitutes the application for a pardon. Receipt by the Governor of a Certificate of Rehabilitation does not guarantee that a pardon will be granted.

Who may apply?

You are eligible to apply for a Certificate of Rehabilitation if you:

- Were convicted of a felony and served your sentence in a California prison; and
  - Were discharged or released on parole prior to May 13, 1943; and
  - Have not been incarcerated in a state penal institution since release; and
  - Have resided for three years in California immediately prior to filing the petition.

OR

- Were convicted of a felony, or a misdemeanor sex offense specified in Penal Code section 290 that was dismissed under Penal Code section 1203.4 and
  - Have been discharged from custody, parole, or probation; and
  - Have not been incarcerated in any penal institution, jail, or agency since release; and
  - Are not on probation for the commission of any other felony; and
  - Have resided for five years in California immediately prior to filing the petition.

OR

- Were convicted of a felony after May 13, 1943; and
  - Were sentenced to state prison; and
  - Were discharged from custody or released on parole; and
  - Have resided for five years in California immediately prior to filing the petition.

Persons who are not eligible to apply for a Certificate of Rehabilitation include:

- Those who do not meet the above requirements; or
- Those who were convicted of misdemeanors, except those convicted of a misdemeanor sex offense as discussed above; or
- Those who were convicted of sex offenses under Penal Code section 286(c), 288, 288a(c), 288.5, or 289(j); or
- Those who are serving a mandatory life parole; or
- Those committed to prison under a death sentence; or
- Those persons in the military service.

When to apply?

Persons eligible for a Certificate of Rehabilitation may file a petition with the Superior Court in their county of residence once they have completed the period of rehabilitation. The period of rehabilitation begins to run upon discharge from incarceration or upon release on probation or parole. The period of rehabilitation requires five years residence in California, PLUS:

- Four years for persons convicted of Penal Code sections 187, 209, 219, 4500, or 12310, or military Veterans Code section 1672(a), or any other offense that carries a life sentence; or
- Five years for any person convicted of any offense for which sex offender registration is required under Penal Code section 290, except for convictions for violations of subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of section 311.2 or of section 311.3, 311.10, or 314 (these convictions require an additional two years); or
- Two years for any person convicted of any offense not listed above and that does not carry a life sentence; or
- Any additional years ordered by the court if the person served consecutive sentences.

A certified copy of the Certificate of Rehabilitation issued by the Court is transmitted to the Governor and becomes the application for a pardon.
