INSTRUCTIONS

This packet contains the forms you need to request a Civil Harassment Restraining Order. The form "Can a Civil Harassment Restraining Order Help Me?" (Form CH-100-INFO) will give you a basic overview on civil harassment restraining orders. The instructions in this packet will explain how to complete these forms and the process of submitting them to the Clerk's Office for filing.

You will fill out the following forms to start your request:

- Form CH-100 – Request for Civil Harassment Restraining Order
- Form CH-109 – Notice of Court Hearing – only complete sections 1 and 2.
- Form CH-110 – Temporary Restraining Order – only complete sections 1, 2 and 3.
- CLETS-001

Fee Waiver: There may be a fee for filing these forms. There is no fee if the person you are requesting to be restrained has used violence against you, has stalked you, or has acted or spoken in some other ways that make you reasonably fear violence. If you are not sure if you will need to pay a fee and would like to apply for a fee waiver, please request a Fee Waiver packet from the clerk.

Detailed instructions for completing and filing your forms are included below.

Complete the following forms:

1. Form CH-100 – Request for Civil Harassment Restraining Order

- Section 1 – Write in your name and an address where you can reliably receive mail. You can write in a P.O. Box. If you do not want the Restrained Person to know where you live, do not write your home address here because this document must be served on the Restrained Person.
- Section 2 – Write in the name and identifying information of the Restrained Person. Fill in as much of the requested information as you know.
- Section 3 – List any members of your household, including family members or people with whom you are in a relationship who live with you (but not roommates) and whom you want to protect under your restraining order. In section b, explain why you think they need protection from the Restrained Person.
- Section 4 – Explain how you know the Restrained Person.
- Section 5 – Explain why you are filing in this county – you will need to file in the county where either the Restrained Person lives or where the harassment took place.
- Section 6 – List any other court cases (if any) in which you have been involved with the Restrained Person.
- Section 7 - Describe the details of the harassment that you are alleging took place, beginning with the most recent incident. In section b, state whether the Restrained Person has harassed you before, and briefly explain what happened during those other incidents.
- Sections 8-9 – Check the boxes to tell the court which orders you want against the Restrained Person, and whether stay away orders will prevent the Restrained Person from getting to work, home, job or school.

- Section 10 – Tell the court whether the Restrained Person has any firearms or ammunition that you know about. If you are not sure, check “I don’t know.”
- Section 11 – If you feel that you will not be safe without a restraining order against the Restrained Person until you go to the hearing, explain why you feel you need that temporary order.
- Section 12 – If you feel you will not be able to serve the Restrained Person by 5 calendar days before the hearing, you can request the court to allow you to serve the paperwork closer to the hearing date. Explain why you think you will not be able to serve it within 5 days.
- Section 13 - Check a and b if you feel you have been threatened with violence or reasonably fear violence from the Restrained Person. If the court grants your request, the fee will be waived and the filing fee will be waived. If not, you can still request to have the fees waived by filing a Fee Waiver Request. Check c if you are filing a fee waiver request with your request for Civil Harassment Restraining Order.
- Section 14 – This section only applies if you are represented by an attorney.
- Section 15 – Complete this section if you are requesting a restraining order to keep the Restrained Person away from any animals you own, if you feel that the Restrained Person might injure or remove those animals.
- Section 16– Complete this section if you want to request other orders not included in the previous sections. NOTE: You cannot request a move-away order in a Civil Harassment Restraining Order.
- NOTE: Attach a copy of your Emergency Protective Order if one has been granted.

2. Form CH-109 - Notice of Court Hearing

- Fill in sections 1 and 2 only. The court will fill in the rest.

Filing the Documents

Return your forms to the Visalia Courthouse, Clerk of the Court (Rm 201) located at 221 S. Mooney Blvd, Room 201, Visalia, CA 93291 OR the South County Justice Center, Court Clerk’s window located at 300 E. Olive Ave, Porterville, CA 93257:

- Form CH-100 – Request for Civil Harassment Restraining Order (with copy of your Emergency Protective Order attached, if one was issued) – original and 1 copy
- Form CH-109 – Notice of Court Hearing - original
- Form CH-110 – Temporary Restraining Order - original
- CLETS-001 - original
- FW-001 – Request to Waive Court Fees and FW-003 – Order on Court Fee Waiver (if applying for fee waiver) - original and 1 copy each

The Court Clerk will file the forms and return your filed copies of the Fee Waiver forms (if you qualify for a Fee Waiver based on section 5a or 5b, otherwise the Request will be sent to the judge for review). The Notice, Temporary Order and CLETS will be kept and sent to the judge for review.

The clerk will give your documents to the judge, who will carefully review and consider your request. The court will grant a temporary restraining order if it appears necessary to keep you safe until the hearing. Even if the court does not grant a temporary restraining order, a hearing will be set for a date about three weeks from the date you file your Request.

After the court makes a decision on your request, the clerk will call to let you know your paperwork is ready for pickup. You will receive copies of the Request, Notice of Hearing, and certified copies of the Temporary Restraining Order if one is granted.

Serving the Paperwork

You will need to have the respondent served by 5 court days (or the amount of time listed on the CH-109, Notice of Hearing) before the hearing.

You will need to serve copies of the following forms that you filed:

- CH-100 - Request for Civil Harassment Restraining Order
- CH-109 - Notice of Hearing
- CH-110 - Temporary Restraining Order

You will also need to serve the following blank forms:

- CH-120 - Response to Domestic Violence Restraining Order
- CH-120 - INFO - How Can I Respond to A Domestic Violence Restraining Order?
- CH-800-INFO - How Do I Turn In, Sell or Store My Firearms?
- CH-800 - Proof of Firearms Turned In, Sold, or Stored

If the court has checked the box on Section 10 of the CH-110 (Temporary Order), the Sheriff's Department, located at 221 S. Mooney Blvd. Room 102, County Civic Center Visalia CA 93291 will serve the paperwork at no charge to you. You will need to provide two copies of each form you want the Sheriff's Department to serve.

Next Steps

You will need to appear at your court date that is listed on the Notice of Hearing (CH-109). At that hearing, the court will either grant or deny your Request, or set a further "contested" hearing where both parties can bring evidence to support their side of the story. If this happens and you were granted a Temporary Restraining Order, the order will be extended until the new court date. You will need to appear in person for your contested hearing.

Further Assistance

For further assistance, please contact the Self-Help Resource Center in Visalia or Porterville.

These instructions cannot cover all of the questions that may arise in a particular case. If you do not know what to do to protect your rights, you should see a lawyer.

What is a civil harassment restraining order?

It is a court order that helps protect people from harassment.

Can I get a civil harassment restraining order?

You can ask for one if you are worried about your safety because someone:

- Is harassing you
- Is stalking you
- Has committed acts of violence against you, or
- Has threatened you with violence

How will the order help me?

The court can order a person to:

- Not harass or threaten you
- Not contact or go near you, and
- Not have any firearms (guns), firearm parts, or ammunition. This includes firearm receivers and frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531).

For more information about the items a restrained person cannot have, please see <https://selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/restraining-orders/prohibited-items>.

You can also ask for protection for people who live with you and family members.

In a civil harassment case, the court cannot:

- Order a person to move out of your residence
- Order a person to pay child support to you
- Make orders for custody and visitation

If you need these orders, you should proceed under the Domestic Violence Protection Act. File form DV-100.

The court also cannot:

- Order a person to pay money that he or she owes you
- Order someone to move out of rental property that you own
- Order someone to stop creating a nuisance that doesn't involve harassment

If you need these remedies, you must file a civil action.

How much does it cost?

That depends on the type of harassment. If the restrained person has used or threatened to use violence against you or has stalked you, you do not have to pay a filing fee; otherwise, you must pay the fee.

If you cannot afford to pay the filing fee, ask the clerk how to apply for a fee waiver. Form FW-001 is available for this purpose.

If the order is based on prior acts of violence, a credible threat of violence, or stalking, you are entitled to free service of the order by a sheriff or marshal. Also, if you are eligible for a fee waiver, you can ask the sheriff or marshal to serve the order for free. If you are not eligible for free service, you may pay the sheriff or marshal to serve the order.

What forms do I need to get the order?

You must fill out all of form CH-100, Request for Civil Harassment Restraining Orders, and form CLETS-001, Confidential CLETS Information. If you need attachments, you may use form MC-025. You must also fill out items 1 and 2 on form CH-109, Notice of Court Hearing, and items 1, 2, and 3 on form CH-110, Temporary Restraining Order (CLETS-TCH).

Where can I get these forms?

You can get the forms from legal publishers or from the California Courts website at www.courts.ca.gov/forms. You also may be able to find them at your local courthouse or county law library.

What do I need to do to get the order?

You must go to the superior court in the county where the harassment took place or the person to be restrained lives. At the court, ask where you should file your request for a civil harassment restraining order. (A self-help center or legal aid association may be able to assist you in filing your request.)

At the court, give your forms to the clerk of the court. The clerk will give you a hearing date on the Notice of Court Hearing form, and if your request for immediate orders is granted, a copy of the Temporary Restraining Order signed by a judicial officer.

How soon can I get the order?

If you ask for a temporary restraining order, the court will decide within 24 hours whether or not to make the order. Sometimes the court decides sooner. Ask whether you should wait or come back later to get the signed Notice of Court Hearing and Temporary Restraining Order.

How long does the order last?

If the court makes a temporary order, it will last until your hearing date. At that time, the court will decide to continue or cancel the order. The order could last for up to five years.

How will the person to be restrained know about the order?

Someone age 18 or older—not you or anyone else to be protected by the order—must “serve” (give) the person to be restrained a copy of the order. The server must then fill out form CH-200, Proof of Personal Service, and give it to you to file with the court. For help with service, ask the court clerk for form CH-200-INFO, What Is “Proof of Personal Service?”.

What if the restrained person does not obey the order?

Call the police. The restrained person can be arrested and charged with a crime.

Do I have to go to court?

Yes. Go to court on the date the clerk gives you.

Do I need to bring a witness to the court hearing?

Witnesses are not required, but it helps to have more proof of the harassment than just your word. You can bring:

- Witnesses
- Written statements from witnesses made under oath
- Photos
- Medical or police reports
- Damaged property
- Threatening letters, emails, or telephone messages

The court may or may not let witnesses speak at the hearing. So, if possible, you should bring their written statements under oath to the hearing. (You can use form MC-030, Declaration, for this.).

Do I need a lawyer?

Having a lawyer is always a good idea, but it is not required and you are not entitled to a free court-appointed attorney. Ask the court clerk about free and low-cost legal services and self-help centers in your county.

Will I see the restrained person at the court hearing?

If the person comes to the hearing, yes. But that person does not have the right to speak to you. If you are afraid, tell the court officer.

Can I bring someone with me to court?

Yes. You can bring someone to sit with you during the hearing. But that person cannot speak for you in court. Only you or your lawyer (if you have one) can speak for you.

Instructions for Law Enforcement

Enforcing the Restraining Order

This order is enforceable by any law enforcement agency that has received the order, is shown a copy of the order, or has verified its existence on the California Restraining and Protective Orders System (CARPOS). If the law enforcement agency has not received proof of service on the restrained person, the agency must advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then must enforce it. Violations of this order are subject to criminal penalties.

Start Date and End Date of Orders

This order starts on the date next to the judge's signature on page 4. The order ends on the expiration date in item ④ on page 1.

Arrest Required if Order Is Violated

If an officer has probable cause to believe that the restrained person had notice of the order and has disobeyed the order, the officer must arrest the restrained person. (Pen. Code, §§ 836(c)(1), 13701(b).) A violation of the order may be a violation of Penal Code section 166 or 273.6. Agencies are encouraged to enter violation messages into CARPOS.

Notice/Proof of Service

The law enforcement agency must first determine if the restrained person had notice of the order. Consider the restrained person "served" (given notice) if (Pen. Code, § 836(c)(2)):

- The officer sees a copy of the Proof of Service or confirms that the Proof of Service is on file; or
- The restrained person was informed of the order by an officer.

An officer can obtain information about the contents of the order and proof of service in CARPOS. If proof of service on the restrained person cannot be verified, the agency must advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then enforce it.

This is a Court Order.

If the Protected Person Contacts the Restrained Person

Even if the protected person invites or consents to contact with the restrained person, this order remains in effect and must be enforced. The protected person cannot be arrested for inviting or consenting to contact with the restrained person. The order can be changed only by another court order. (Pen. Code, § 13710(b).)

Conflicting Orders—Priorities for Enforcement

If more than one restraining order has been issued protecting the protected person from the restrained person, the orders must be enforced in the following priority (see Pen. Code, § 136.2 and Fam. Code, §§ 6383(h)(2), 6405(b)):

1. Emergency Protective Order (EPO): If one of the orders is an Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-001), provisions (e.g., stay-away order) that are more restrictive than in the other restraining/protective orders must be enforced. Provisions of another order that do not conflict with the EPO must be enforced.
2. No-Contact Order: If a restraining/protective order includes a no-contact order, the no-contact order must be enforced. Item 5a(2) is an example of a no-contact order.
3. Criminal Protective Order (CPO): If none of the orders include an EPO or a no-contact order, the most recent CPO must be enforced. (Fam. Code, §§ 6383(h)(2) and 6405(b).) Additionally, a CPO issued in a criminal case involving charges of domestic violence, Penal Code sections 261, 261.5, or former 262, or charges requiring sex offender registration must be enforced over any civil court order. (Pen. Code, § 136.2(e)(2).) All provisions in the civil court order that do not conflict with the CPO must be enforced.
4. Civil Restraining Orders: If there is more than one civil restraining order (e.g., domestic violence, juvenile, elder abuse, civil harassment), then the order that was issued last must be enforced. Provisions that do not conflict with the most recent civil restraining order must be enforced.

- Assaulted, including sexually, or
- Threatened with violence

I've been served with a request for civil harassment restraining orders. What do I do now?

Read the papers served on you very carefully. The Notice of Court Hearing tells you when to appear in court. There may also be a Temporary Restraining Order forbidding you from doing certain things. You must obey the order until the hearing.

What if I don't agree with what the order says?

You still must obey the order until the hearing. If you disagree with the orders the person is asking for, fill out form CH-120, Response to Request for Civil Harassment Restraining Orders, before your hearing date and file it with the court. If you need to include attachments, you can use form MC-025. You can get the forms from legal publishers or from the California Courts website at www.courts.ca.gov/forms. Forms may also be at your local courthouse or county law library.

What if I don't obey the order?

The police can arrest you. You can go to jail and pay a fine.

Do I have to serve the other person with a copy of my response?

Yes. Have someone age 18 or older—not you—mail a copy of completed form CH-120 to the person who asked for the order (or that person’s lawyer). (This is called “service by mail.”)

The person who serves the form by mail must fill out form CH-250, Proof of Service by Mail. Have the person who did the mailing sign the original. Take the completed form back to the court clerk or bring it with you to the hearing.

Should I go to the court hearing?

Yes. You should go to court on the date listed on form CH-109, Notice of Court Hearing. If you do not go to the hearing, the judge can make orders against you without hearing from you.

(Civil Harassment Prevention)

How long does the order last?

If the court issued a temporary restraining order before the hearing, it will last until your hearing date. At that time, the court will decide to continue or cancel the order. Any order issued at the hearing can last for up to five years.

Do I need a lawyer?

Having a lawyer is always a good idea, but it is not required, and you are not entitled to a free court-appointed attorney. Ask the court clerk about free and low-cost legal services and self-help centers in your county.

Will I see the person who asked for the order at the court hearing?

Yes. Assume that the person who is asking for the order will attend the hearing. Do not talk to him or her unless the judge or that person's attorney says that you can.

Can I bring a witness to the court hearing?

Yes. You can bring witnesses or documents that support your case to the hearing. But if possible, you should also bring the witnesses' written statements of what they saw or heard. Their statements must be made under penalty of perjury. You can use form MC-030 for this.

Information about the process is also available online.

See <https://selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/CH-restraining-order>.

What if I don't speak English?

When you file your papers, ask the clerk if a court interpreter is available. You can also use form INT-300, Request for Interpreter (Civil), or a local court form or website to request an interpreter. For more information about court interpreters, go to <https://selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/request-interpreter>.

What if I have a gun?

If a restraining order is issued, you cannot own, possess, or have a firearm (gun), firearm parts, or ammunition while the order is in effect. If you have a firearm (gun) or firearm parts in your immediate possession or control, you must sell it to or store it with a licensed gun dealer, or turn it in to a law enforcement agency.

Can I agree with the protected person to cancel the order?

No. Once the order is issued, only the judge can change or cancel it. You or the protected person would have to file a request with the court to cancel the order.

What if I have a disability?

If you have a disability and need an accommodation while you are at court, you can use form MC-410, Disability Accommodation Request, to make your request. You can also ask the ADA Coordinator in your court for help. For more information, see form MC-410-INFO, How to Request a Disability Accommodation for Court.

What items do I need to turn in, sell, or store?

You must turn in, sell, or store all of the following prohibited items that you have or control:

- Firearms, including any handgun, rifle, shotgun, and assault weapon;
- Firearm parts, meaning receivers, frames, or any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531). These may also be called "ghost guns."

You also may not have or possess ammunition.

How do I properly turn in, sell, or store the prohibited items?

You must take them to:

- Law enforcement, who will accept all prohibited items and may store them or destroy them;

OR

- A licensed gun dealer, who can buy or store firearms. If you have firearm parts, call ahead for more information.

When do I have to turn in, sell, or store the prohibited items?

Immediately, if law enforcement asks you for the items. Otherwise, within 24 hours.

Who can I turn in, sell, or store the prohibited items with?

Only law enforcement or a licensed gun dealer. You cannot give your prohibited items to a family member, friend, or anyone else

Where can I sell the prohibited items?

At a licensed gun dealer in your area. You can search the internet for "Gun Dealers" or "Firearms Dealers" to find one. Make sure the dealer is licensed.

Do I have to pay a fee to store prohibited items?

You may have to pay a fee. Contact your local law enforcement agency or a licensed gun dealer about fees and whether they have space to store your items.

How do I turn in the prohibited items to law enforcement?

Call your local law enforcement agency to ask about their procedures. Unload your firearms and take a copy of the court order with you.

Do not bring firearms to court.

If I turn in the prohibited items to law enforcement, how long will they keep them?

It depends. There are procedures for getting your firearms back after the restraining order has expired. Ask the law enforcement agency for more information.

After I turn in the prohibited items to law enforcement, can I change my mind?

Yes. You are allowed to sell firearms to a licensed gun dealer. To do so, the gun dealer must present a bill of sale to your local law enforcement agency. The law enforcement agency will give the licensed gun dealer the items that you are selling.

Do I have to prove that I have turned in, sold, or stored the prohibited items?

Yes. Within 48 hours you must file a receipt with the court showing that you have surrendered the prohibited items to a law enforcement agency or sold them to or stored them with a licensed gun dealer. You may use Receipt for Firearms and Firearm Parts (form CH-800) for this purpose.

Additional Questions?

Contact an attorney for legal advice. Call your local law enforcement agency, for example, your city police or county sheriff for their procedures.

What is "service"?

Service is the act of giving your court papers to the other party in your case. There are different ways to serve the other party: in person, by mail, and others.

Why do my court papers need to be served?

Before a judge can grant a civil harassment restraining order (that can last up to five years), the person you want a restraining order against must know about your request and have a chance to go to court to explain their side. Also, if a restraining order is in place, the police cannot arrest the restrained person for violating the restraining order until the restrained person is served with the order.

What is "personal service"?

Personal service is when someone, known as a server, personally delivers your court papers to the other party. In most cases, these forms must be served on the other party by personal service:

- ▶ Form CH-109;
- ▶ Form CH-100;
- ▶ Form CH-110;
- ▶ Form CH-120 (leave this form blank);
- ▶ Form CH-120-INFO; and
- ▶ Form CH-250 (leave this form blank).

Who can serve my court papers?

Any adult who is not protected by the restraining order can serve your court papers. You cannot serve your own court papers.

Some situations may be dangerous. Think about people's safety when deciding who you want to serve your papers.

A sheriff or marshal will serve your court papers for free if:

- The court granted you a fee waiver; or
- The restraining order is based on stalking, violence, or a credible threat of violence.

A registered process server is a business you pay to deliver papers. To hire a process server, look for "process server" on the internet or in the yellow pages.

How do I have my court papers served?○ Step 1: Choose a server

The person who gives your court papers to the other party is called a server. Your server must be at least 18-years-old. They must not be protected by the restraining order or involved in your case. This means that you cannot serve your own court papers.

○ Step 2: Have your server give your court papers to the other party

Give your server these instructions:

- ① Before you serve the forms, note which forms you have, including the name of the form and the form number. See form CH-200 for a list of forms.
- ② Find the person you need to serve. Make sure you are serving the right person by asking the person's name.
- ③ Give the person the papers. If the person refuses to take the papers, put them on the ground or somewhere next to the person. The person doesn't have to touch or sign for the papers. It is okay if they tear them up.
- ④ Fill out form CH-200 completely and sign.
- ⑤ File form CH-200 with the court or give form CH-200 to the person who is asking for the restraining order so they can file it.

○ Step 3: File proof with the court

The court needs proof that service happened and that it was done correctly. If your server was successful, have your server fully complete and sign form CH-200. The person you want restrained does not sign anything.

File form CH-200 with the court in your case as soon as possible. This information will automatically go into a restraining order database that police have access to.

If the sheriff or marshal served your court papers, they may use another form for proof besides form CH-200. Make sure a copy is filed with the court and that you get a copy.

When is the deadline to serve my court papers?

It depends. To know the exact date, you need to look at two items on form CH-109. Follow these steps:

- Step 1: Look at the court date listed under ③ on page 1.

③ Notice of Court Hearing
A court hearing is scheduled on

Hearing Date	→ Date: _____ Dept.: _____
--------------	-------------------------------

- Step 2: Look at the number of days written in ⑥ on page 2.

⑥ Service of Documents by the Person
At least five ____ days before the

- Step 3: Look at a calendar. Subtract the number of days in ⑥ from the court date. That's the deadline to have your court papers served. It's okay to serve your court papers before the deadline.

If nothing is written in ⑥, you must have your court papers served at least five days before your court date.

What happens if I can't get my court papers served before the court date?

You will need to ask the court to reschedule (continue) your court date. Fill out and file form CH-115 and form CH-116. These forms ask the judge for a new court date and to make any temporary orders last until the end of the new court date.

If the judge gives you a new court date, the person you want restrained will have to be served with form CH-115, form CH-116, and the original papers you filed. You should keep a copy of form CH-115, form CH-116, and a copy of your original paperwork. That way, the police will know your orders are still in effect.

For more information on asking for a new court date, read form CH-115-INFO.

What if the other party is avoiding (evading) service or cannot be located?

If you've tried many times to serve the the restrained person, and you can show the judge that the restrained person is avoiding (evading) service or cannot be located, you may ask the court to allow you to serve another way. If you want to make this request, at your first court date tell the judge details about your attempts to have the restrained person served. The judge may require a written statement for this.

Read form CH-205-INFO, What If the Person I Want Protection from Is Avoiding (Evading) Service or Cannot Be Located?, for more information.
