PRESS RELEASE

GOVERNOR NEWSOM APPOINTS KATRINA BROWNSON, JUDGE OF THE TULARE COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT

Governor Gavin Newsom announced the appointment of Katrina Brownson as judge of the Tulare County Superior Court.

“The appointment of Katrina Brownson brings a deep commitment to justice, integrity and public service. Her extensive experience and background in the public sector will make her an excellent addition to the Tulare County bench.” said Presiding Judge, Nathan Ide.

Prior to her appointment, Brownson worked as an Assistant District Attorney in the Tulare County District Attorney’s office. She has also worked as an Assistant United States Attorney at the U.S. Attorneys Office, Eastern District of California and as an Associate at the Law Offices of Jack M. Early. Brownson earned her law degree from Western State College of Law. She fills the vacancy created by the retirement of Judge Juliet Boccone. Brownson will be sworn-in in January 2026.
