The Superior Court for the County of Tulare Invites Attorneys to Apply To Serve as Temporary Judges

The Tulare County Superior Court is adding attorneys to its pool of temporary judges. The court encourages you to consider applying.

Temporary judges are used at the discretion of the Presiding Judge when the court needs judicial assistance that it cannot provide using its full-time judicial officers.

In Tulare County, temporary judges most often hear drug court, small claims and traffic matters.

To become a temporary judge, you must have been admitted to practice as a member of the State Bar of California for at least ten years (or at least five years for an appointment with good cause. See Rule of Court 2.812(a)).

The qualifications to serve as a Temporary Judge have been adopted by the California Supreme Court through the Rules of Court. The conditions for appointment are found in Rule 2.812(b), and the education and training requirements are found in Rule 2.812(c). Most required training materials are available online at http://www2.courtinfo.ca.gov/cjer/pro\_tem.htm.

The court encourages all eligible individuals to apply regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, age or other protected status. Among the qualifications the court will consider in the selection process is an applicant's exposure to and experience with diverse populations and issues related to those populations.

Those wishing to apply should submit a written application available from the court's web site at: www.tulare.courts.ca.gov Instructions for submitting completed applications are available on the court's web site. A separate application must be submitted every three years to renew your status as a temporary judge. Similarly, if you add a new area of qualification, you should submit a new application. You must attach to your application copies of all certificates of completion for required online courses.

For any questions, please contact Court Administration at: (559) 730-5000 ext. 1359.
